

EmJ3 – Emmett Johnson, “Two Jobs – Work Ethnic”

Transcript: pp. 20

Time-Line: Decade VII, Local and National Events, 1963, “March 24. CT Dept. of Labor;”

But I always says that those are my kids, I had those five kids so I have to provide for those five kids. I am a proud man to say that I never went to the state for anything. The state don't owe me nothing. I don't owe them nothing. And my kids learned that. Each one of my kids knew that their father worked and how I worked and how it is to go out there and get a job and go to work every day and be the type of guy that worked in a shop or wherever you work -- productive. Never go to work late. Respect people. I love people. That's how you're going to make it in this world.