"Sept. Bridgeport Brass announces 5-6 million dollar re-conversion"

RF One thing that I'm finding out that's particularly interesting is that millions of us who went into the service and we had war time experiences to talk about missed a lot of what was going on at home while we were away. While we were abroad. I think this is something that I think a lot of the service people have yet to learn. You hear about Rosie the Riveter and stuff like that but day to day life with the rationing and all that stuff.
